Because the School Mascot was chosen to be the SHMOO, we thought it would be appropriate to write Al Capp, the originator of Lil Abner and the Shmoo, asking him to draw us a Shmoo and sign the picture. We asked him for a full color drawing of a Shmoo. Mr. Capp's reply to this request appears in the upper right corner.

DR. KEELER'S MESSAGE

In extending the best wishes of the Faculty of Jasper Place Composite High School to the Class of 1966, I quote from The Secondary Phase of Education by Lawrence W. Downeys

"... the outcomes of secondary education should . . . take into account three considerations: the culture, the society and the individual. Secondary schools have a responsibility for the ordering, the preservation and the transmission of the important elements of the great cultures of the world, particularly our own; they have a responsibility to serve and to improve the society that created and supports them; and they have a responsibility to develop the talents of the individuals they attempt to educate . . . It is assumed that both the cultural and social responsibilities of the secondary school may be best discharged through concentration upon the individual student. A guiding purpose of the secondary school may be simply stated: to assist every individual to achieve the maximum realization of his potential. This principle, in itself, is open to many interpretations. Nonetheless it has been a guiding one for the teachers in this school. We have not always been consistent, wise, and successful in implementing this principle, but it is my firm conviction that we have been sincere in our efforts to do so. To the extent that we, the teachers, have succeeded in this aim, you, the students, have received a good secondary education. The measurement of this success will come in the years ahead: your performance in the world of work, in further educational endeavors, and, most of all, in your lives as men and women, will prove the worth of your years at Jasper Place Composite.

As you leave the shelter of the high school, and go forth into the world, confident and unafraid, you carry with you the affection and the highest hopes of the Faculty, and the warmest wishes for success and happiness.

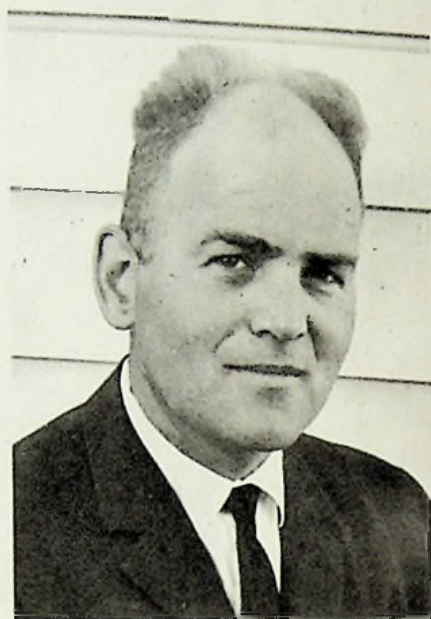

B. T. Keeler

DEDICATION

Many students and teachers were shocked November 10th to learn that Miss K. M. MacNab, our senior teacher at Jasper Place Composite High School, had passed away. Some knew her as the elderly teacher in room 215; to some of the faculty she was Kay; to most of us she was Miss MacNab; to all of us she was a fine teacher and a very fine person!

The parents of Miss MacNab were early settlers in the Edmonton area. She once said "People thought my Dad was crazy because he settled so far out of town. The location was 117 Street, south of Jasper Avenue." A descendant of influential pioneer stock from Eastern Canada, Miss MacNab was a Conservative with a capital "C" and was a patriotic citizen who took pride in British tradition.

Miss MacNab grew up in Edmonton, receiving her schooling and University education here, graduating from the University of Alberta holding an honors masters degree in arts. For several years she taught school at country points, including St. Albert. Miss MacNab taught at the Jasper Place High School for more than twenty years and, although she did teach some French, for the last decade she concentrated on Social Studies, serving as head of the Social Studies department for two years. Miss MacNab also served as an authority on Student Awards, having a large share in establishing rules and regulations for Academic Trophies and the General Achievement Trophy.

A former president of the ATA sub-local, Miss MacNab was an active member of the Alberta Teachers' Association and a member of Christ Anglican Church for many years. She served on the Jasper Place Amalgamation Committee prior to 1964.

Dedication to her family and students was one of Miss MacNab's outstanding qualities. She was dedicated to her mother in particular whose health was not good for many years. Whenever she spoke in class of her mother, she would say "Mom used to say to us kids . . ." always speaking affectionately of her parent as "Mom." Her dedication to her students was often expressed in small ways. Many times she read interesting narratives, not found in the text, which made history come to life. On many occasions she spent evenings in research just to clarify some minor historical point for a student.

Patience and understanding were also remarkable qualities that Miss MacNab possessed, particularly dealing with a few boisterous students in every class. For instance, a rowdy boy named Jim, whom she could have regarded contemptuously, was always referred to as "my friend Jim." Thus she banteringly, yet firmly, maintained effective discipline.

Yes, many students and teachers deeply regret the passing of such an understanding and dedicated lady.

The Echo thanks the "Highlights" staff for permission to reprint this editorial which appeared in their November issue, and joins them in making this the tribute more lasting by dedicating "Echo '66" to our Miss MacNab.

SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL

Grad Council '66 of J.P.C.H.S. was composed of ten grade twelve students and a committee of teacher consultants. This council was responsible for making the plans and preparations for Senior Class Night while grade eleven students helped in doing the work, such as decorations. Council members were volunteers and were chosen because of their willingness to work. We hope that this year's graduation will truly be something wonderful to remember as the grand-finale of our high-school careers.

Valedictory

Mr. Chairman, honored guests, parents, teachers, and fellow students. The word valedictory means farewell. Tonight, we officially bid farewell to Jasper Place Composite High School, its teachers, its work, its fun, and its memories. We will remember the noisy halls, the crowded buses, our troubles, our happiness, our teachers, and our fellow students.

The students of this school can be likened to a solar system which forms an entity in itself but is also bound to the other things around it. Some students are like meteors: they shine brilliantly in one accomplishment and then disappear into the rest of the crowd. Others like planets, are consistent, always good, average, or bad. Still others, like the stars, have reached great heights in studies, sports, or other activities. However, the members of a universe are forced to follow the same path forever. We, on the other hand, can change our direction, our outlook, our ideas, or even stop to review and evaluate our lives and what we are doing with them. All of us here tonight can control or change our destiny and we should make use of this ability to improve our lives and the lives of the people around us.

To our parents we say thank you even though this word is inadequate in expressing what we owe to them. They have started us on the long road to maturity during these past seventeen, eighteen, or nineteen years. They have instilled in us some of their courage, ideals, and wisdom. These gifts should be retained and developed for they will form the basis of our future ideas and standards.

To our teachers we also say thank you for the educational opportunities, experience and knowledge that they have given us. However, there is a limit to what our teachers can do. They can not write our exams for us.

Therefore, the Grade Twelve Departmental Examinations are a challenge which must be faced and overcome by each of us alone. We can no longer rely on receiving our parent's help or a second chance from our teachers. No matter what we are going to do after we leave this school, we will have to make it on our own. Here too, we must make certain that we retain control of our destiny and plan wisely for the future.

Just as the different meteors, stars, and planets make up a single solar system, all of us with our different talents, attributes, and personalities will form a part of the modern society in which we will find our future. We have an obligation to our parents, our teachers, our friends, and all the others who have helped us to make our lives the best and most useful possible. Of paramount importance in achieving this is attitude. We should strive for a philosophy of life like that expressed in the following creed by Roy L. Nicholson: Promise ourselves —

To be so strong that nothing can disturb our peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person we meet.

To make all our friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make our optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as we are about our own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

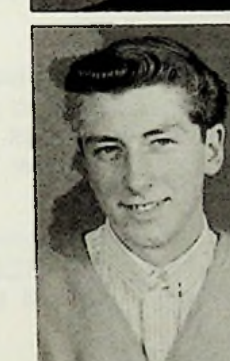

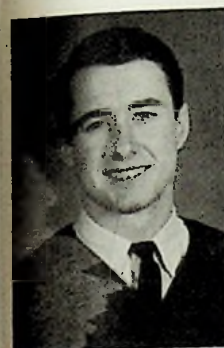

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and to give every living creature we meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of ourselves that we have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Be this our creed.

ULI AHMER —

Born in Edmonton, KEITH ALEXANDER is an active participator in basketball and an avid football fan.

Edmonton-born JIM ALLEN is a football and hockey enthusiast. His main hobby is drafting. Also interested in music, Jim's talents range from guitar and drums to the viloin.

Doing crazy things and spectator sports such as football and horse-racing are the chief likes of GWENN BELL. Born in Westlock, Alberta, she is planning for a career in the outdoors.

GARY CHAPMAN was born in Vermilion, Alberta, one of our coldest towns, and is admirably suited for Edmonton weather. Gary's music abilities consist of playing the radio and TV. Gary's hobbies are pool and girls.

VALERIE CHATTEN —

A native of Calgary, SHIRLEY CHISWELL likes swimming, skating and sewing. She likes a boy named Bill and dislikes washing dishes, corny cowboy shows, tomatoes and ketchup.

MUK-LUK ICE STATUE

This year J.P.'s Muk-Luk Ice Statue won third prize. Although the participation in this event is not what we would like it to be some people did come out to help. The people that should be recognized for participating most in the ice statue are Tom Young, who drew the design for this year's statue, Jutta Frohlick who was in charge of organization and Glen Hornland and Doug Cummings for the many hours that they donated to the statue. Next year it is hoped that Jasper Place will continue the tradition established for so many in the school by the so few that contributed.

ECHO PRODUCTION STAFF

Donna Greleaven
EDITOR

We, the staff of the 1965-66 Echo Year Book, are dedicating this year's work to the late Miss K. MacNab for her sincere and devoted interests in the work of our students. Her fine work, her patience and her understanding are all fondly remembered and in this small way we hope to pay tribute to her.

Congratulations are in order for the hard work done by the Graphic Arts classes, the staff of the Echo, and to Mr. Mathew and Mr. Fossen who are mainly responsible for this year's much improved production.

We hope that you will enjoy our pictorial illustration and verbal description of the production of a year book and will find it both interesting and informative. The Echo has taken many hundreds of hours work and the help of many loyal students to produce.

The students of Jasper Place Composite High School should be proud to know that we are the only school in Canada to have our year book completely edited and produced within its walls. The morale of the students of the school has improved greatly and thanks is given to persons submitting club write-ups, literary works and other articles to help make the Echo a better edition although we hope for still better co-operation from some of the clubs and particularly Grade 12 students.

Congratulations to all of the Echo staff and sincere gratitude to all who helped make it possible. Good luck to the future Echo to make an even finer production.

ECHO PRODUCTION STAFF

many people, requires hundreds of hours of time, and utilizes many techniques, skills and machines of a highly specialized nature.

Over two thousands pictures are taken and processed. Many thousands of names and words have to be set and proof read. Three tons of paper, 15 gallons of glue, 30 gals of water, nearly a mile of stitching wire, 40 pounds of ink, and several hundreds of sheets of film are required to produce the ECHO.

Our school is fortunate enough to have the machines and the students with the necessary skills to run these highly specialized machines used in the printing of a job such as this. Each student in the Graphic Arts classes has had a

After the copy has been received, it is set up in lines of type in the required size, style and width. This is a fully automatic machine, the only manual labour being the striking of the key for the desired letter.

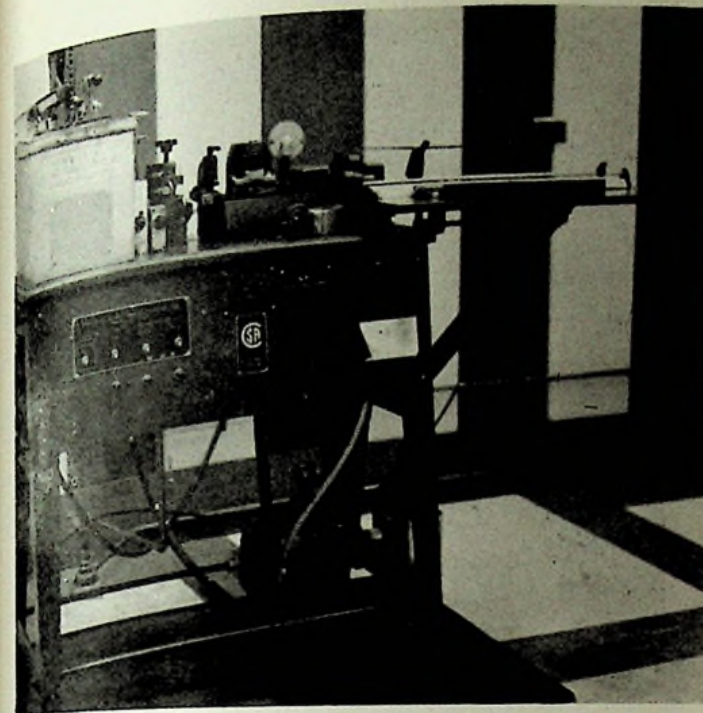

"hand in the production of the ECHO. The covers were hand made almost entirely by the Graphic Arts 12 classes. Students of all the classes were responsible for the binding of the book. Although we have mentioned at the front of the book and at the beginning of the production write-up the names of the students who have worked in special areas of the ECHO, each of the 112 Graphic Arts students contributed to its production.

The following pages introduce you to the students of the senior classes, and the more important machines they used to produce ECHO '66. The short description under each illustration describes its part in the production sequence.

LUDLOW

The headings are set according to requirements. The "moulds" for the letters are picked out by hand and assembled in a locking device, placed in the machine and cast in lead. The "moulds" are then put back in the appropriate places in the type cabinet.

STRIP CASTER

Spacing material and borders are required by the hundreds of pounds. The Strip Caster casts the variety of spacing material (in lead) and the borders of different designs.

MERGANTHALER LETTERPRESS

Four pages are assembled into a metal frame called a chase. The chase is placed on the press and the type contained in the chase is inked by means of the rollers on the press. The paper is then made to come into contact with the inked type and thus an image is made on the paper.

MAKE - UP

When the type comes from the Linotype, and the Ludlow and the spacing material and borders are cast, the students on make-up assemble this material into page form, pull page proofs and correct the errors.

THE CHIEF OFFSET PRESS

The pictures and illustrations are transferred by means of a photographic process onto an aluminum sheet called a plate. This plate is fastened to the press, inked, and the image transferred to the paper.

THE DARK ROOM

The hundreds of pictures used in the Echo are developed and printed in the darkroom. The metal plates used on the Chief Press are also produced in the darkroom.

HEIDELBERG LETTERPRESS

Small areas of color, and overprinting on single pages are done directly from type on the Heidelberg Letterpress. This is a fully automatic machine.

BOOK COVERS

The book covers are hand made, and require many hundreds of hours to complete. The glue is applied by means of a gluing machine, but the balance of the work is done by hand.

COLLATING (Assembling)

The completed pages are placed in long rows in the correct page order. They are then collated or gathered into complete books. There are machines for this work, but the Echo is assembled by hand.

STITCHING

Each book, after it has been assembled and checked, is stitched or stapled as it is better known. The stitcher makes its own staples from a roll of wire. The size and type of wire as well as the size of the stitch is adjustable.

TRIMMING

After the assembling the stitched pages are trimmed and bound between the covers. The cutting machine above is hand operated, and will cut over 500 sheets at a time.

This year we of the photo club have really gone places. We now have a club darkroom, and several members have their own darkrooms. There have been many expeditions made by many members for such pictures as EDMONTON as well as the MUCK-LUCK-MARDI-GRAS. We have taken pictures of special events around this school for some time, and we enjoy it very much. We are also buying some new equipment this year. There is not enough room to say much more except that the photo club is the best club in this school.....

THE STUDENTS UNION

The Students' Union at Jasper Place Composite High School, and at other high schools as well, is designed mainly for the purpose of providing a meaningful link between the students and the administration. Also, this organization endeavors to provide a worthwhile and valuable learning experience for the students.

Many believe that the Students' Union is a convenient device for the students' use in running the school. This is a totally distorted concept about the Student Union's function, which is to provide for student participation in the affairs of the school.

The Students' Union strives to maintain equilibrium between school unity and freedom for the individual. By participating in Student Union affairs, one can fulfill the need to be respected as an individual and the need to feel secure and needed. There is no better method of contributing to a school's well-being than by playing an active role in Student Council activities.

Through the organization of the Students' Union, it is hoped that the students will become familiar with the duties and responsibilities of being a good citizen. The practices involved in representative democracy become realistic to students after they take part in elections and meetings.

The 1965-66 Students' Union executive strived to take initiative and progressive actions. The executive requested and boldly supported the possibility of instituting a smoking room at J.P.C.H.S.

In the hopes of developing student responsibility, the Students' Union executive organized a plan of Student Cafeteria Supervision.

With the purpose of promoting school-community relations, the Students' Union executive sent a submission to the City of Edmonton Parks and Recreation Department requesting that social skating be reinstated at the Jasper Place Sports Centre.

By supplying Booster Buses for students' transportation to the football and basketball games, the Students' Union encouraged the strength of school spirit. To honor the Senior Rebel football champions and to glorify the school's victory, the Students'

Union planned a successful football banquet.

The responsibility of supporting a Foster Child has become a unique feature in itself.

To help develop scholarship and healthy competition among the students, the executive accepted the idea of presenting monthly an Outstanding Student Award.

The Students' Union donated an amount of $100.00 for use in the newly devised Principal's Discrepancy Fund, which is designed for the purpose of aiding some students with financial problems.

At the beginning of the 1965-66 executive's term, they were presented with numerous budgets from the school clubs and departments. Each budget was carefully discussed before they were accepted, amended or rejected. By providing financial support for school clubs, the Students' Union aims to provide interesting and widespread activities for everyone.

To uphold school traditions is yet another duty of the Students' Union. One annual ritual is Frosh Week. The week, during which new students are welcomed, includes the hilarities of "hazing" and is concluded with Kangaroo Court and a Frosh Dance.

School life would become an utter drudgery if the regular schedule was not broken with such activities as dress-up days, sock-hops and dances. It is the aim of the Students' Union to plan unique and exciting activities to be intermingled with academic activities, in order to create a balanced and cheerful atmosphere.

With the S.U. executive member acting as middlemen, between the student body and the administration, the provision for student expression and an exchange of student-faculty viewpoints is assured.

"... the Student Council is no longer considered to be extracurricular or an adjunct to the curriculum, but an integral part of it."

Carolyn Hill,
Secretary of S.U.

BADMINTON CLUB

Sponsor, Mr. J. G. Frank

The Badminton Club began in October, 1965, and members met each Thursday and Friday from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Later in the year this frequency of meetings was reduced to one day a week and the club met on Fridays. Membership reached about 35 persons with fees of 50c each being charged to help meet expenses such as birds and tournament fees. The club also received a grant from the Students' Union, for which we are grateful. The club hopes to field a team for inter-school competition in the spring of 1966.

BON MARCHÉ

The Bon Marché school store is a practical organization of the Merchandising 20 classes. The president of the Bon Marché school store is Mr. W. Ellis, and the executive members and staff are the students of the three Merchandising 20 classes.

The student body under the guidance of their teacher, Mr. Ellis operate the store, daily between 11:42 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. for the benefit of teachers and students.

The students receive classroom instruction in Merchandising 20, and apply this instruction in the school store. Every aspect of merchandising is performed by the students. The store is in its third business year and has grown to include from one to three classes now.

The Bon Marché store, operated by Merchandising 20 classes, started with basic items such as values generally ascribed to extra-curricular activities, serves the following specific purposes: It provides students with facilities for the purchasing of school supplies, which in many cases they could not obtain locally.

It provides business students with experience in store operation and management while attending school.

It yields a modest revenue to the Students' Union because all surplus earnings at the end of

The school store, as well as providing the the year are turned over to the Students' Union, for the following term.

The I.G.A. store has donated a display stand, Safeway stores have donated some advertising material, and The National Cash Register Co., has given us the use of one of their cash registers. This piece of equipment is an absolute and distinct necessity and enables the student cashiers to exercise proper control of cash.

inexpensive ball-point pens, notebooks, notebook refills, but now stocks highly specialized items such as gymnasium uniforms, review books, numerous pocket books, personal needs such as nylons, coveralls for shop students, footwear, beauty culture supplies, and even the latest records, some so recent in production that even our local stores have not yet received them for sale.

The majority of the dealers have extended credit to the Bon Marché and student buyers are able to make purchases on account for resale.

The store policy recently established that it was not going to carry large inventories except at the beginning of the year, when many new and used books are sold to students.

The store is here to provide the Merchandising 20 students with practice in ethical retailing and to provide all the students with convenient access to common and specialized goods. The project is exclusively confined to business students enrolled in the Merchandising 20 course.

The operation of the Bon Marché store is not a "make-believe" affair. It is "Retailing at Work." The students learn the principles of retailing, selling in a meaningful situation, one that is directly related to the life interests and activities of young people. There is practical instruction in window display, store layout, purchasing, pricing, marking, advertising, cashiering, inventory control, in addition to dealing with customers, and keeping a set of books.

Many of the Merchandising students will be ready to accept positions with confidence after they complete their theoretical in the classroom and practical training in the Bon Marché store.

If you are interested in merchandising, retailing, salesmanship management, enroll in the Merchandising 20 course for the coming year.

BOWLING CLUB

Sponsors: Mr. O. Lauber
Mr. G. Loughheed

The Bowling Club holds its meetings every Tuesday after school at the Meadowlark Lanes. The executive consists of: President—Judy Muraweski; Vice-President—Gary Chapman; Secretary — Sharon Hannam.

The highlight of the year was the participation of Bob Scabar on the Western Canada Championship team.

CURLING CLUB

The Jasper Place Composite Curling Club began the 1965/1966 season with a general interest and planning meeting on October 5, 1965. The enthusiasm of former years was evident at this meeting also, as a large number of prospective curlers indicated a desire to join. The executive was elected at this meeting and is composed of Keith Houg, president; Donna Thompson, secretary; and Betty Scott, treasurer.

The members meet each Tuesday at the Hillcrest Curling Club and curl from 4 to 6 p.m. The limited membership of 48 (Hillcrest can accommodate only 48 curlers at one time) allows for the forming of 12 teams. There has been a good amount of friendly competition among these teams and the result of this has been several top-rate teams.

In addition to curling each week, members of the club are chosen to represent our school in the High School Bonspiels. The members of this year's entry for the Northern Alberta Bonspiel were Dennis Bosse, Richard Paquette, Bill Corbett and Larry Crapka. Although this team was not one of the four chosen to represent Northern Alberta, the team did place in the top six.

The Jasper Place Composite Curling Club offers, to all interested students, involvement in a sport which is rapidly gaining popularity throughout Canada.

Donna Thompson
(Secretary)

DRAMA CLUB

President: Cameron Murray
Secretary: Brenda Dry
Treasurer: Maurie Smith

The Drama Club is designed to promote extra-curricular activity in the theatre field at J.P.C.H.S. This year, members of the club have assisted with the Year Play, "Stranger In The Night," as well as taking leads in the production. Brenda Dry, our secretary, had the part of Sylvia. Various other members of the club, like Jim Dearden, Rita Smith, Ruth Littlefair and Rick Yeoman, also took substantial parts in the production. The play was successful as far as the acting went but not too successful on the attendance end. It is hoped this situation will be remedied at future events.

The Musical Comedy was "Mississippi Melody" by Charles George. The lead parts were taken by Dale Franklin, Jim Dearden, Andy Joyes, Ken Muraweski, Bob Gamble, Ruth Littlefair and Rick Noonan.

It is hoped the Drama Club will continue to function as well in future years as it has up to now. Many thanks are due to the teachers who gave so willingly of their time and know-how to assist the club.

Cameron Murray

DATA PROCESSING CLUB

This club is a co-curricular activity meeting two afternoons per week for 1½ hours per session. It is a study group and the area of study centres around the use of the IBM equipment which this school is fortunate to have. Introduction to computers and computer concepts is also an aim of this study group.

The enrollment of the group is approximately 10 or 12 members but all members are not able to meet both days. The officers of this group are Joesanne Bisset, President; Louise Dowling, Vice-President; Rita Henderson, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Unit Record Equipment which is the name that this series of IBM equipment goes under is a very large part of the every day business scene today.

The staff sponsors for this club are H. E. Harris, J. McKeage, G. Loughheed.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

The Geography Club held its first meeting on January 13, 1966. Although not all members attended the inaugural meeting, 27 students signed up.

The officers are: club sponsor, Mr. Ravenscroft; president, Ross McLeod; vice-presidents, Rick Checkland, David Buzzeo; secretary, Vera Vandermeer; treasurer, Carol Etherington.

Its first activity will be a visit to Nisku International Airport. There will also be local field trips and the last one will be a field trip to Jasper in June. At present the club is trying to obtain an associate membership of the Alberta Geographical Society.

HAIRSTYLING STUDY CLUB

In October of 1965 the J.P.C.H.S. Hairstyling Study Club was formed by the students of Beauty Culture 22 and 32. The club consists of twenty-four members, the president, Lorna Saunders; secretary, Jerry Anderson, and the sponsor, Mrs. Mikkelsen.

The main function of the club is to prepare the girls for creating and modelling hairstyles for show work. The club has made two public appearances for the school staff in 1966. The first appearance displayed the newest look in hairstyling while the second appearance was connected with the Hawaiian theme.

Twice a month, on day one, the Hairstyling Study Club holds Open House for all students. Open House plus the sale of coffee to customers, is the way in which the club makes its income. Also in the future the club plans to sell astringents and creams (made by the club) to the public.

HOSTESS CLUB

Executive:

President: Lauris Landreth

Vice-President: Aleatha Zygmunt

Secretary: Peggy Miller

This club, sponsored by Miss Hansen and Miss Bernhardson, is responsible for checking coats at all school functions. The fifteen members have worked over thirty hours altogether during the first half of the year. The girls work on a strictly voluntary basis but taxi fare is provided. The club has purchased new jackets this year and is planning to replace the old paper tags with metal ones. It is hoped that the Hostess Club has given some assistance to the students in the past and will continue to do so in the future.

ISCF CLUB

Sponsors: Mr. Isaac, Mr. Zinyk

President: Mary Sibley

Vice-President: Sharon Wiebe

Secretary: Susan Brewster

Social Convenor: Sharon McFall

Publicity: Shirley Thoman

Missionary Secretary: Linda Ellams

Prayer Secretary: Bev Jamieson

The aim of the Inter-School Christian Fellowship Club is "to know Christ and to make Him Known." But the club makes a lot serious matters a lot of fun!

Every Monday, the club meets to enjoy such things as films, tapes, special speakers, Bible studies, discussions, or singing.

However, activities are not restricted to school. The I.S.C.F. camp at Sundre provides horseback riding, canoeing, and swimming. At Christmas time, there is Banff Ski Christmas. During the summer holidays, there is a Pioneer Ranch Camp, near Nordegg, to enjoy. Besides camps, the club has city-wide socials as well as socials within the school.

The club members are deeply grateful to the sponsors who guided and helped them this past year.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is basically a service organization. Its value lies mostly at the desk, where books are stamped out, re-carded when returned, and shelved. In the reference library, too, an extra job is fining the students who bring back overdue books.

Besides these routine tasks, which also include all the filing of the cards at the desk, there are extra chores to be completed by library club members. One of these is the reading of the shelves, to make sure the books are in order. This is an assignment completed once a week on the members' own time.

In the library office, the members are occupied with filing, checking invoices, stamping books with the library stamp, pasting pockets and date due slips on, repairing books; in short, any job which has to be done but would take too much of the librarian's and secretary's valuable time. To accomplish this purpose, workshops are held on one Saturday every month. Library club members volunteer about five hours of their time to the profit of the school. The first workshop was held Jan. 8, and was responsible for some two hundred new books being placed on the shelves.

A member of this club soon knows the library intimately and this is of good use, especially if one is going to go to university. Besides this, the person offers a service to his fellow students by helping to place the library at his disposal.

Shirley Stevenson, 244,
Pres. of '65/'66 Library Club.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus, the largest club in the school, consists of over a hundred members. This group has performed for various occasions such as The Night of Music, Musical Comedy, Graduation and Assemblies.

Sectional rehearsals were held during noon-hours and full rehearsals were held once or twice a week after school. The selection of music included a variety of sacred, popular, Broadway and traditional numbers.

2nd Alto — Ruth Littlefair

MODELLING CLUB

Through these shows the club has promoted fashion ideas and trends, and has succeeded in introducing and setting many new styles.

We hope to see more girls and boys out next year to continue the work of the club.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Fahlman and Mrs. Tymchyshyn for all the help they have given us this year in helping us arrange shows and helping us with important decisions.

Modelling is a career looked upon as consisting of a lot of money and strictly glamorous. Actually it isn't all glamour but is hours of practice and a lot of hard work. Since the Modelling Club has approximately 35 members; 25 of which are new to this field, it has been the club's objective to give them a view of modelling as it really is.

The executive, Heather Brown, Carrol Treleavan, and Lynda Lovo, has arranged numerous fashion shows since the beginning of the school year.

THE QUILL

Published three times annually, The Quill is successfully stimulating literary development and appreciation in our school. Articles printed in the magazine are some of the finer pieces of writing produced by a wide scope of students and are carefully selected by the editorial staff for their literary merit and originality. Also included in The Quill are reproductions of art work created by J.P.C.H.S. students. All submissions to The Quill are gratefully received. We should be proud that the reputation of quality in our Quill has provided a stimulus for other such magazines in Edmonton high schools.

RADIO BROADCASTING CLUB

Jasper Place Comp. High School has many features which many of the other high schools do not have. The students, as well as the faculty and the administration, though they do not always admit it, are secretly proud of the many clubs and other extra curricular activities that our school features. One of these clubs is the Radio Broadcasting Club, or more commonly known as R.B.C. The latter fits under the category of service clubs. Its purpose is to provide our school with entertaining music, news, sports, and other features which professional radio stations present. On top of that, the R.B.C. plays a vital role in the activities of other clubs as well as in most of the other events occurring around the school. Take, for example, the last year play we had. Members of the R.B.C. did the lighting, the sound, nailed flats together, and sold refreshments. When other students have a holiday, the radio club is hard at work. This was the case at the last teachers' convention held at the Comp. The members were kept busy installing P.A. equipment in various parts of the school, giving directions to many lost and confused strangers, and of course the usual refreshment stand attracted many of the exhausted visitors.

Many of our local radio stations and other businesses have taken an interest in the R.B.C. One of these, which certainly deserves a lot of credit is CFRN Radio. The latter has donated thousands of dollars worth of equipment, which became obsolete to them due to modernization of their studios. CFRN has also let the R.B.C. have free use of their studios for recording our programs. One of our past members now has a job there, thanks to his relationship with the R.B.C. At present, we are sponsored by station CHED. We receive six records a week, get publicity, and other benefits, in return for advertising their station.

To raise funds for new equipment, etcetera, the Radio Club went into the concession business. In previous years this was kept to a small scale, only at dances and certain sports events. This year, however, the R.B.C. went all out and bought a candy vending machine. At first it was decided to rent the machine, since it cost four hundred dollars, which we thought we would never be able to raise. But, to the amazement of the club, the sales went over so well that in no time at all we were able to buy the machine. The latter has eight rows, each holding twenty-four bars, and the machine is filled to capacity twice a day. This of course, as can be expected, keeps the club's secretary treasurer hopping just about every moment of his spare time, what with the bookkeeping and all. Due to this unexpected revenue, the R.B.C. has been able to improve their studio. New acoustic tile has been installed on the walls, and new equipment has been purchased. If things keep up the way they are going now, I see a great future for this club, and a great service and asset to our school.

STAGE BAND

The Jasper Place Stage Band was formed in late October of this school term. It holds practices and/or meetings under the sponsorship of Mr. Ferguson every Tuesday noon and Wednesday after school in the band room (Rm. 174). The executive consists of the president, Gary Sykes, and the secretary-librarian, Ross McKenzie. There are eleven members, each of which has purchased his or her own Jasper Place T-shirt to give the group a common outfit. The band has played for school assemblies, Color Night, pep rallies, Black Cup

Night, the football banquet, and other school activities. Having never played or practised from sheet music, the group has displayed tremendous potential and are an asset to school spirit. The members and their respective instruments are: John McKenzie, trumpet; Gary Sykes, trumpet; Ross McKenzie, piano; Doris Larsen, tenor saxophone; Dale Williamson, tenor saxophone; Marg Cobb, alto saxophone; Craig Norris, clarinet; Robert Gamble, clarinet; Joel Warhaft, drums; Geoff Waygood, drums; and Jerry Fawcett, baritone.

TABLE TENNIS CLUB

Severe handicaps at the beginning of the year, notably two tables which would not stand, delayed the meetings until near the close of the first term. Thanks to Mr. Ayres and the Welding Department the major problems were ironed out and the club enjoys the support of some fifteen regular players. Meetings were held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at noon on the stage in the main gymnasium. David Bates and Bryan Armstrong did an excellent job as equipment managers.

WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB

The Weightlifting Club, though short on members this year, has come up with an excellent team and can look forward to an excellent showing at the Edmonton High Schools Weightlifting Tournament in March. This year, the Jasper Place

Club will be hosting the contest which attracts the best lifters from many of the city's high schools. The school trophy, presented annually to the best lifter within J.P.C.H.S., went to the club president, Ron Moger.

SENIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

This was a good year for the senior girls team. They finished in fifth place out of 12 teams. Each year they are gradually climbing the ladder.

The senior league was divided into two Conferences of six schools each. In the Jasper Place league were Ross Sheppard, St. Joseph's, Victoria, Strathcona and St. Mary's.

During league play the J.P. girls won five games and lost one. Unfortunately the one loss determined whether or not the team would be in the play-off. They lost to St. Joe's.

The season ended with a banquet. The four basketball teams of this school were in attendance. A handicap Basketball Trophy was played for. Then, the evening concluded with a presentation of best player award trophies. Maurie Smith was voted by her teammates the most valuable player to her team for this year.

With over half of the team returning next year, it is hoped that next year will be as successful as this one.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Our girls got off to an excellent start spirit and win-wise by whitewashing Victoria Composite 28-20. Perhaps, though, the hardest fought and best played game was our second league game against Scona. Unfortunately, we lost 12-11. There were other good games during the season but losing was becoming a habit with us. Our team just couldn't provide the little extra effort and co-operation needed to produce a confident, spirited and winning team.

A hilarious handicap basketball tournament capped the season. The Juniors played all the other Jasper Place basketball teams plus the Allsorts (coaches, managers, referees, scorers, timers) Wow! Following the games, a delicious banquet was served and awards were presented. Bertha Babych was chosen as the most valuable player on our junior team.

The season was not a loss. We had fun even though we lost. We should not let our desire to win destroy the wonderful opportunities of producing warm friendships between players, of attaining a high skill and knowledge level in basketball, of feeling in top notch condition, and of working selfless hours during practice. We know that what we gave to the team we gave to our school and we received accordingly. We're willing to work harder next year; and are pleading for more 'Jasperites' to join us. Won't you represent your school on the 'BB' team next year?

GIRLS GYMNASTIC TEAM

The girls gymnastic team placed second in the High School Competition this year, losing out to Victoria Composite by 8 points.

Results were as follows:

Bev Goddard—third in free exercise
—second in vaulting
—second in balance
—second in all-round

Wanda Crew—sixth in free exercise
Annetta Naslund—tenth in balance beam
Cecile Paul—eleventh in free exercise
Leslie Gibson—fourth in balance beam
Linda Turner—fifth in free exercise
Sharen Hannem—eighth in balance beam
Maurie Smith—sixth in vaulting
Linda Gibson—seventh in vaulting
Marilyn Sced—third in vaulting

SWIM TEAM

This year's swim team competed in four meets. Two of the meets, at our own pool, were practice meets against Bonnie Doon, Victoria, and Ross Sheppard. In both of these meets Jasper Place finished second to Ross Shep.

However, in the city elimination meet at O'Leary on March 14, Jasper Place had a total of 100 points to defeat Ross Sheppard who had 81 and O'Leary with 67.

From the elimination meet the following swimmers went on to the city finals and placed 3rd in overall team standings: Cherri Clarke, Byron Christensen, Bill Tieland, Norgrove Penny, Gordon Wick, Gus Vandepolder, Nick Kumpula, Doug Haig.

Bev Goddard placed fifth in diving and Edie McLeod was seventh.

MEN'S GYMNASTICS

Led by Andre Lytviak and Terry Olson the J.P.C.H.S. won the City High Schools' men's gymnastics championship in its first year of competition. Jasper Place compiled 83.1 points as compared to their nearest rival, Victoria Composite's 39.9 points. Scona finished third with 18.5 points.

Andre Sytviak placed first in Free Exercise, High Bar, and Vaulting, thus being adjudged the meet's outstanding male gymnast. Terry Olson placed second as the top all-around male gymnast. Ray Eskelson, who later in the month placed second in the provincial Tyro Competition, placed second in the Still Rings event in the high school meet.

The Jasper Place team placed second to Calgary's Viscount Bennett in the Provincial High School meet with John Larson and Ray Eskelson winning events in this meet.

SENIOR REBEL FOOTBALL

The J.P.C.H.S. Senior Rebel football team capped a tremendous season with a thrilling 22-15 conquest of O'Leary Senior Spartans to bring the City of Edmonton championship trophy to Jasper Place for the first time. After dropping their first two encounters to St. Joe's and Scona, the determined Rebels stormed back to win six in a row and secure the silverware for our trophy case. Enroute to the championship the Rebels defeated opposition in the following order:

J.P. 9—Ross Shep 0
J.P. 22—Bonnie Doon 14
J.P. 29—Austin O'Brien 6
J.P. 30—St. Mary's 7
J.P. 14—Victoria Comp. 13

Outstanding in victory for the Rebels was Ron Williams, our leading scorer and ground-gainer, Ed Brown, who scored six touchdowns in the last four games, two of which came in the crucial game against Vic; and Terry Olson who's educated toe meant the difference between victory and defeat in the Vic crucial. However, the victory was a team effort all the way. The above heroics would not have been possible without the combined efforts of thirty tough young men.

SENIOR REBEL BASKETBALL

When the call to arms, for this year's basketball team went out, it was answered by 82 hopeful tryouts. Out of this potential basketball material only the top 25 survived to begin the season for the Junior and Senior Rebels.

At the beginning of the season Terry Wolsey and Ernie Woods were elected by their team-mates to captain the team.

Each player at one time or another, throughout the season, showed his ability as a basketball player. However, the inconsistency of the team to function as a unit on any one occasion proved to be their downfall. Nevertheless the team managed to advance to the semi-finals past Queen Elizabeth where they were defeated by Bonnie Doon.

The season ended with the first annual basketball awards banquet. On this occasion Gilbert Shirley, who led the team in rebounds and scoring, was voted by his team-mates to be the most valuable player.
